

CSE 321 - 05 Class Performance-04

Write a program where a process passes a value to its child process and the child process calculates the factorial of that number and returns the result to the parent process. The parent process then prints the value.

Input constraints: $0 \leq n \leq 10$

Sample I/O:

4

24